AFL-CIO, is to improve the lives of our members and their families, to give voice to their legitimate professional, economic and social aspirations, to strengthen the institutions in which we work, to improve the quality of the services we provide, to bring together all members to assist and support one another and to promote democracy, human rights and freedom in our union, in our nation and throughout the world.

Americans United For Change is a powerful movement bringing together independent voices for new policy priorities and real leadership - to focus our elected officials on the issues that really matter to the lives of everyday Americans and get America moving in the right direction again.

The Campaign for America's Future (CAF) is a center for ideas and action that works to build an enduring majority for progressive change. The Campaign advances a progressive economic agenda and a vision of the future that works for the many, not simply the few. The Campaign is leading the fight for America's priorities – against privatization of Social Security, for investment in energy independence, good jobs and a sustainable economy, for an ethical and accountable Congress and for high quality public education.

The Center for American Progress is a progressive think-tank dedicated to improving the lives of Americans through ideas and action. We are creating a long-term, progressive vision for America—a vision that policy makers, thought-leaders and activists can use to shape the national debate and pass laws that make a difference.

CAWP is a university-based research, education and public service center. Its mission is to promote greater knowledge and understanding about women's participation in politics and government and to enhance women's influence and leadership in public life.

The Center for Policy Alternatives (CPA) is the nation's only nonpartisan nonprofit organization working to strengthen the capacity of state legislators to lead and achieve progressive change.

BISC is the progressive “think-and-do tank” for ballot measure research and strategic campaign support. We are a resource for grassroots advocates seeking to pass issues of economic justice, environmental protection, expanded health care, quality public education, and much more. The only organization of its kind, BISC uses the initiative process as a tool for achieving progressive policy goals and building broad political power in the states.

Change to Win

Washington, D.C.

202-721-0660

<http://www.changetowin.org/>

Our mission is to unite the 50 million workers in Change to Win affiliate industries whose jobs cannot be outsourced and who are vital to the global economy. We seek to secure the American Dream for them, and for all working people, including:

-A paycheck that supports a family

-Universal health care

-A secure retirement

-The freedom to form a union to give workers a voice on the job

Clean Water Action

Multiple locations

www.cleanwateraction.org

Clean Water Action is a national organization of diverse people and groups working together for: Clean Water – Assuring supplies of clean, safe and affordable water for all Americans, now and for the future. Protecting Health – Preventing health-threatening pollution at its source. Creating Jobs – Building an economy based on environmentally safe jobs and businesses. Making Democracy Work – Empowering people to take charge of our environmental future.

Communities of Quality Education

Washington, D.C.

202-454-5694

<http://qualityednow.org/>

Communities for Quality Education, a national education advocacy group, seeks to build a partnership between people inside and outside the education community who share the common goal of building better public schools for every child. Our immediate focus is working with groups and individuals who share our concerns about the so-called No Child Left Behind (NCLB) law and how it is being implemented. Our long-term goal is to have a much broader dialogue about the continuing public policy agenda for public schools.

Defenders of Wildlife Action Fund

Washington, D.C. (also have regional offices)

202-682-9400

www.defenders.org

Defenders of Wildlife is a national, nonprofit membership organization dedicated to the protection of all native animals and plants in their natural communities.

Democracy for America

Burlington, VT

802-651-3200

www.democracyforamerica.com

Inspired by the presidential campaign of Howard Dean, Democracy for America (DFA) is a political action committee dedicated to supporting fiscally responsible, socially progressive candidates at all levels of government—from school board to the presidency. DFA fights against the influence of the far right-wing and their radical, divisive policies and the selfish special interests that for too long have dominated our politics.

Emerge America
San Francisco, CA
415-344-0323
www.emergeamerica.org

Emerge America is a training program for Democratic women who want to run for public office. League of Conservation Voters
Washington, D.C.
202-785-8683
www.lcv.org

The League of Conservation Voters (LCV) is the independent political voice for the environment. To secure the environmental future of our planet, LCV's mission is to advocate for sound environmental policies and to elect pro-environmental candidates who will adopt and implement such policies.

League of Women Voters
Washington, DC
202-429-1965
www.lwv.org

The League of Women Voters, a nonpartisan political organization, has fought since 1920 to improve our systems of government and impact public policies through citizen education and advocacy. The League's enduring vitality and resonance comes from its unique decentralized structure. The League is a grassroots organization, working at the national, state and local levels.

League of United Latin American Citizens
Washington, D.C.
202- 833-6130
www.lulac.org

The Mission of the League of United Latin American Citizens is to advance the economic condition, educational attainment, political influence, health and civil rights of the Hispanic population of the United States.

League of Young Voters

Brooklyn, NY
718-305-4245

www.youngvoter.org

Our core program is to build permanent comprehensive youth civic engagement and leadership development organizations in six states: Pennsylvania, New Mexico, Maine, California, Ohio, and Wisconsin. Each local LYVEF affiliate conducts a comprehensive year-round program which includes outreach, leadership development, training, arts-based organizing, alliance building and non-partisan voter engagement. We believe that focusing locally is the most effective way to build significant power and deeply engage young people in the democratic process.

MomsRising

www.momsrising.org

MomsRising has a goal of bringing millions of people, who all share a common concern about the need to build a more family-friendly America, together as a non-partisan force for 2008 and beyond. This grassroots, online effort is mobilizing mothers, and all who have mothers, across America as a cohesive force for change.
